Response to Amendment

1. Responsive to communication, dated 9/29/2005, amended claims have been entered as requested. Amended drawings are acceptable and entered accordingly.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 9/29/2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The Applicant argued that the cited art, Small et al. (US 6,078,649) does not teach the "controller setting switch options for the switching equipment interface units, the control path unit and the ISDN subscriber interface unit, so that the switch options are the same as corresponding to the digital switching equipment connected to the subscriber transmission equipment".

Examiner believes these limitations are met, by the cited art, in the areas disclosed in Office action, rejection of claims 1-12 (col. 5, lines 39-46 and col. 1, line 45). In addition to these references, the above limitation can also be read in reference to col. 6, lines 35-66 where setting switch options are corresponding to the digital switching equipment.

The amendments made herein have made the claim language clearer but fail to place said claims in condition for allowance.

3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

4. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102 (e) as being anticipated by Small et al. (US 6,078,649).

Claims 1-4 and 7. Small discloses a subscriber loop alarm monitoring system including, subscriber loop connection (see col. 8, line 8), a controller 64 (fig. 5) for handling alarm status indicators (col. 5, lines 39-46), a PSTN switch connected to the controller, where the controller i64 operates the alarm notification (see col. 5, lines 37-47 and col. 6, lines 35-66). The subscriber interfaces are ISDN (see col. 1, line 45).

Claims 5 and 6. Small discloses using TR-303 standard are being utilized (col. 1, line 35). Also using the Bellcore TR-303 standard in addition to SONET, ASDL, Hercules and CHATLOS standards (see col. 1, through col. 3, lines 1-4).

Claim 8. Small teaches using a plurality of different channels and modes (see fig. 3).

Claim 9. Small further discloses at least two interfaces for alarms in one card 31 (fig. 3).

Claims 10-12. Small teaches an analog sensor terminator used to detect certain fault conditions that include uninstalled, disconnected and power-off states (e.g., power 34, battery 35, environment 36 and equipment 37, Also see fig. 3).

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
